Detailed location:

The Inka Llacta Archeosite is located west of the imperial city of Cusco at an approximate distance of 45km in the Valley of Anta, in Peru (Google Earth data: 13 ° 27'33 .60 " 'S 72 ° 18'46 .77"W). The site depends from the municipal jurisdiction of Ancahuasi. The fact that we found a few miles away in the same valley several other Inca sites including the remains of the “Casa Real”, a sort of second home palace belonging to Huayna Capac, son of Tupac Yupanqui and Mama Tucta Cuca indicates how the situation of the Inka Llacta Archeosite is in the logic of the time.
